

Ice cream mix maturation tanks bring or keep the ice cream mix at the aging temperature of 4°C, through circulation of ice water in the jacket or autonomous cooling unit. The gentle agitation ensures a creamy result. Stand alone or skid mounted complete of control panel and piping/valves.