

After pasteurization at higher temperature and longer time, milk dedicated to yoghurt production is inoculated with selected ferments and needs to mature at a certain temperature and for the necessary time till the yoghurt is ready. Cream also needs maturation for the different uses. PIETRIBIASI offers ripening tanks with hot and ice water circulation, with gentle mixers and process control.